

GUIDES AND SCOUTS OF NORWAY

Young Spokesperson Seminar 2018

The Guides and Scouts of Norway are pleased to welcome scouts from the Nordic countries to a seminar with a focus on the knowledge and developing of skills as a Young Spokesperson for the guide and scout movement. The event will give the participants the possibility to learn from experienced Spokespersons, ask any questions they may have, practice their skills and receive feedback, as well as build new friendships.

The Guides and Scouts of Norway hereby invite two scouts from each Association in the Nordic countries. We encourage the Associations to select participants between 18 - 25 of age.

When: October 4th - 7th, 2018

Where Nordtangen Guide and Scout Centre, Gran, Norway

Participation fee will be approximately NOK 3 500. Travel costs are not included

The event will be held at Nordtangen Guide and Scout Centre, situated 40 minutes by bus from the Oslo Gardermoen Airport. Bus transport will be arranged. All participants are to arrive at the airport by 16.30 on October 4th. The seminar starts Thursday evening (first meal being served will be dinner) and ends with lunch on Sunday October 7th. The bus to Oslo Gardermoen Airport will leave shortly after lunch. You can arrange departure flights after 15.00 hours.

All participants will receive further information after registration and will be contacted to ascertain their arrival and departure information, and we will attempt to find a solution for those who are not able to find flight that fit the frame as given. The deadline for registration is September 1st, 2018.
